Welcome: President Jason at Silverado Resort.

Pledge & Thought: Katie Anderson: "Here is the true meaning and value of compassion and nonviolence, when it helps us to see the enemy's point of view, to hear his questions, to know his assessment of ourselves. For from his view we may indeed see the basic weaknesses of our own condition, and if we are mature, we may learn and grow and profit from the wisdom of the brothers who are called the opposition." Teens Connect supports, engages, and empowers teens through programs centered around art and wellness, peer support and volunteer projects. We provide positive opportunities for youth to discover their self-identity, express their voice and create lasting social impact in their communities.

Teens Connect collaborates with local school districts, mental health organizations, and non-profits to provide a comprehensive network of support for our youth. We give teens a voice in the community, listen to their concerns and struggles, and offer tools and connections that guide them as they transition from adolescence into adulthood. We engage teens in meaningful, interpersonal work, as well as projects that benefit younger children, vulnerable communities, animals, and the environment. Our inclusive programs are carefully and strategically designed to enable teens to develop confidence, independence, and empathy.
