Welcome: President Mark welcomed the post Kick Out and pre Fourth of July membership to his first meeting of his new term. Proclaiming it to be "the year of the fox", he administered well and had a great opening day.

Pledge & Thought: Mark has special guest Red Skelton reverse the process with great thoughts about our pledge to our flag and then closed by leading us all in our pledge as we enter into the weekend of celebrating our country.

Song: Computer delays aside, Song Leader Tom relied on group memory to lead a timely rendition of "My Country Tis of The".

Visiting Rotarians: Brad Woodland announced that we had Brian Dodd joining from Napa Noon Rotary.

Guests of Rotarians: Mark Willey introduced his guest Henrike Warmeke from Hanover, Germany who is visiting and staying with Mark and his family.

Announcements:

Depending on when you receive this sending, ALL HANDS ON DECK ARE NEEDED FOR THE FOURTH OF JULY PARADE. PLEASE COME TO THE NAPA REGISTER BUILDING AT 8 AM WEARING YOUR ROTARY SHIRT AND HAT TO HELP OUT WITH THIS ANNUAL COMMUNITY EVENT. DORIS "YOO HOO" GENTRY WAS STILL STANDING AT THURSDAY MORNING'S MEETING. WAY TO GO DORIS..... Al Bahn announced that he has an upcoming training for intruder response for business, schools and organizations. It will be held at the Napa Valley College on July 21 and 22. The program is called ALICE Armed Intruder Response and more detail can be found at www.alicetraining.com or call Al for details.

Chris Craiker announced success at the most recent serving at The Table with 148 meals being provided. Alfredo Pedroza of Mechanics Bank was the sponsor and cooks were Alfredo, Chris, Mike Lundstrom, Joe Rossi and Colleen Clark with able servers Barry Thompson, Ron Driscoll, Mike Cramko and Mike Campi with his two kids. Chris noted that the next Table event would be August 15 and that we need a sponsor and members to serve at that event. Mark your calendar or give Chris a call to sign up.

President Mark announced that the First Board Meeting of the Year will be held on Wednesday July 9th at 7 AM at the Gasser Board Room and that all members are welcome.

Happy Dollars: Colleen Clark was $97 happy for her Dad's 97th Birthday and $3 happy because that is all the money she has left after her choir trip to Italy, Austria and Germany.

John Colman was $100 happy to have attended the first annual Colman cousin reunion in Carson City.

Joe Peatman Senior was very happy to announce that he had become a great grandfather the same time that Joe Junior had become a grandfather. Joe Junior was equally happy to announce the arrival of his first grandchild. Certainly more Joes to follow but happiness all around.

President Mark was happy about having spent time at Bottle Rock with his wife Monica and somehow the recipient of his happiness fell to Larry Sharp's Paul Harris. Not sure how that works.

Rotary Joker: What, another week without Dave Anderson or Denny Mosher having their number called. Chile Soccer fan Jose was the momentary winner who quickly fell loser to the vicious ace of spades.

Red Badge Turns Blue: President Mark made his first blue badge presentation to Alex Meyers. Alex expressed his enthusiasm noting that in 2014 he has gotten married, bought a house and received his Blue Badge. He was torn to decide which was the most important or memorable event. It was commented as to which would be the most expensive. Alex's sponsor was Scott Young who we have lost to Southern California and thus we lose one great member to gain another. Welcome Alex!

Attendance Awards:

Tom Feutz, Don Andrich and Brian Kelly presented the perfect attendance award pins for those with 2 years all the way to 31 years. The top five with perfect attendance for over 35 years were Bill Jabin 25, Dean Lumbert 26, Brian Kelly 27, Tom Feutz 29 and granddad Don Andrich at 31 years of perfect attendance.

Speaker Program: Rotary 2014-2015 Was Introduced by President Mark

Each Service chair of the new administration was introduced by our new president and each was given the opportunity to speak about plans and requests from members for the coming year. In next week's Bulletin will be reported about what each had to say and what we will be looking forward to doing within the club. For this week, in order to get the reminder out about the parade, we will cut short and hit the presses. All have a great Fourth of July Parade and weekend.

Concluding Breakfast:

President Mark concluded his final meeting and set the members free for their first week under his new term.
