Annual Golf Ball Drop:

Prior to the official welcome by President John, Rotarians enjoyed one of the special Napa Valley mornings at the Vintner's Golf Course in Yountville. The weather was warm and the perfect day for our Annual Sunrise Rotary Golf Ball Drop fundraiser. Everyone was directed over to the driving range where Cory Waken bravely boarded the gondola with his four or five bags of golf balls and was tethered above the drop hole. At the appropriate moment golf balls, presumably numbered, fell from the sky and fortunately missed the observation team of Mike Campi, Jerry Johnson and President John. Under their watchful eye the winners were either determined or selected and all returned for a great breakfast buffet overlooking the golf course and west foothills. Winners were First Place Mark Lesti, Second Place Mark Kuhnhausen and Third Place to one of Jerry Johnson's 50 ticket buyers.

Welcome: With the assistance of a portable mike and amplifier President John welcomed the group to the beautiful day and called gathering to order.

Pledge & Thought: Mark Luce lead the pledge to the flag at the nearby fire station and provided an excellent thought that went something to the effect, " to worry about yesterday leaves you depressed, to worry about tomorrow makes you anxious and to live in today gives you peace".

Song: So appropriate to the location overlooking the Veterans Home set in the nearby hills Tom Feutz lead the members and guests in a reasonable rendition of God Bless America as the balloons drifted down valley.

Visiting Rotarians: There were no visiting Rotarians last Thursday at Yountville.

Guests of Rotarians: Mike Downer introduced Sharon Goldman, Brian Doughty brought his son Justin to see the balloon and George Nielson brought his granddaughter Tessa to check out the ball drop.

Student of the Month: The student of the month, Monica Morales, was introduced by the Assistant Principal who had been with Napa High for 21 years. There was a handout provided and she commented that 134 seniors received scholarships valuing over $206,000 and that this was the 8th year that the amount had exceeded $200,000. Monica chronicled her history through Harvest Middle School and her plans to attend Sonoma State. She has been very active in Community Service working with the elderly and somehow found time to work for a local cleaner where she had met a number of Sunrise Rotarians. Mark Foxworthy was her sponsor and he recognized her with appropriate gifts and awards.

Announcements: Jim Collins, sponsored by Mike Downer, received his red badge and gave a 22 second introduction to the group. He is a Napa native with 3 children at Justin Sienna and looks forward to working with the members..... President John announced that Dr. Rob Hampton was undergoing some medical attention following from the fall he took in Chicago on St. Patrick's Day. Thoughts and wishes for a rapid recovery to Rob from the group..... Jim Beazley offered up 2 tickets for auction to the next Colleen Clark concert at $45 each and they were quickly purchased by Chris Craiker with his donation to the club.

Happy Dollars: Pastor Ron was happy being a grandfather for the first time. Quickly on route to the birth on interstate 80 in Utah he was listening to the progress on the phone and failed to notice that he was going 80 and entering in to a 55 mile per hour zone. All his prayers could not get him out of it. Thus, $50 to his Paul Harris.....Sharpie Sharp from KVON was happy to introduce his new "Regular Guy" program that we will be hearing on the radio. Starting off with political candidates he sees it moving to valley shakers and movers and maybe even some Sunrise Rotarians. Happy with the new content he gave $50 to his Paul Harris and $50 to Pathway Home.....Flush from winning the golf ball drop Mark Lesti parted with $100 to the club, $100 to Doris Gentry's Disney Trip and $100 to his Paul Harris. Mark probably won more money on the golf ball drop than has playing golf. Good to see what goes around comes around.....Tom Feutz attended and wanted to recognize the Leadership Napa Valley Program that Patricia Lawrence had promoted to the club. He commented that the program dramatization of 4 Napa Valley Life Stories was very moving. Moving enough for him to give $50 to Patricia's Paul Harris.

Rotary Joker: No Joker was done at the golf course.

Concluding Breakfast:

The great ball drop and breakfast came to an end and John sent all off to a great week with a warm and bright Napa Valley day. What's not to like?
