July 31, 2017 Gentelin's on Broadway

Regular Meeting 6:00 PM. Our program will feature Stephany Tate, Marketing Director at the Alton Visitor Center. She will discuss upcoming plans and programs being coordinated by the Alton Visitor Center over the next few months.

August 7, 2017 Gentelin's on Broadway

Regular Meeting 6:00 PM. Our program will feature Kathy Willis, who is the Director of the Corporate and Community Learning Division at Lewis and Clark Community College. She will discuss the programs that will be available this fall at Lewis and Clark for persons interested in taking some "fun" courses without having to enroll in a full semester course. This discussion will be geared specifically for persons in our age group. This should be an interesting program for anyone wanting to "improve" themselves.

August 14, 2017 Gentelin's on Broadway

Regular Meeting 6:00 PM. Our program will feature our own John Hopkins, who will present a "Presidential Constitutional Report", which I am sure will be a very interesting and provocative program.

August 21, 2017 Hatheway Cultural Center

Celestial Narratives by Michiko Itatani on Monday, August 21, 2017, 5-8 p.m. at the Hatheway Cultural Center Gallery. This progressive event will move from the gallery to The Grove to Fountain Court for an immersive experience, including cosmic-themed beverages and appetizers. Solar Flair is a celebration of light, energy, lunar cycles and how plants connect with the cosmos. The show features 10 pocket gardens such as the "Starry Night Living Wall" and the "Planetary Pathway." Casual attire is recommended, and guests of all ages are welcome to attend at no cost.

August 28, 2017 The Old Bakery Beer Company, 400 Landmarks Boulevard, Alton, IL 62002

Regular Meeting 6:00 PM. Our program will feature Marc Voegelé, who will discuss the generational differences that we now need to deal with in the typical workplace environment. Marc is a fellow Rotarian (Edwardsville) and is employed by Express Employment Professionals. This is a special membership night. Please bring a guest interested in joining our club.
