Announcements

April 12, 2017

The club's Board of Directors meets Wednesday April 19th at 5:15 PM at the McCracken County Public Library.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED. With just over a week to go before the start of the 2017 Rotary Antique Quilt Show, more than 20 volunteer slots remain to be filled. Slots are filled for Tuesday April 25th, but shifts need to be filled during the remaining four days. A full shift is 8 volunteers who do everything from collect money at the door to staffing the information booth. Operating with fewer than 8 per shift creates more work for your fellow Rotarians and, more importantly, lessens the experience for our guests who pay to support our REAP projects. Please, go immediately to <http://signup.com/go/crBssQ> and choose the shift(s) you can work at this year's Quilt Show.

If you do not plan to use or distribute your personal Quilt Show tickets, please return them to Denise to be used for show promotion the week of the show.

The club's Renewal & Engagement Team is putting together a "Rotary Night" at a Paducah Chiefs baseball game. The tentative date is June 17th. Club members and their family will attend free, a member will throw out the first pitch, and we get to lead the crowd in "Take Me Out To the Ballgame". Financial sponsors for the night are needed. Contact Rotarian Zach Hosman for more information.

A reminder that April 20th is the deadline for discounted hotel reservations for the Rotary District 6710 annual Conference. The conference is scheduled for May 19-20 at the Downtown Marriott in Louisville. Fellow Rotarian and former local president Missy Eckenberg will take the gavel as the new District Governor for 2017-18 at the
