Paducah Kennel Club

April 4, 2018

-Speaker: Fellow Rotarian Cathy Crecelius

-Topic: Paducah Kennel Club Events and Purpose

-Takeaways for Rotarians

-The Paducah Kennel Club began in 1951 and is open to dogs of all breeds. The club's primary objective is to promote responsible dog ownership.

-The Club offers AKC all-breed Confirmation Shows, AKC Obedience Trials, AKC Agility Trials, pet obedience classes, beginner through advanced agility classes and more. The club meets the second Tuesday of each month at their club, located at 1320 Fisher Road in Paducah.

-As the only AKC affiliated kennel club in the region, members travel from as far as West Tennessee and Southern Illinois to take part.

-The club recently had to rebuild much of its Fisher Road facility after winds from a strong storm ripped off the roof. The club is now fully functional, and was able to actually add new features.

-The club hosted its annual "Quilt City Classic Dog Show" last weekend. More than 500 dogs competed in the competition held at the Schroeder Expo Center in Paducah.

-Chris Muller also spoke about how to find Rescue Dogs in our area. She said the American Kennel Club's (AKC) website features a huge site registry for Rescue Dogs and rehab services.

-For more information about the Paducah Kennel Club, visit their website at www.paducahkennelclub.com, or, their Facebook Page, "The Paducah Kennel Club".
