'Neurology Brothers' Represent Lourdes

March 21, 2018

-Speakers: Neurologist Dr. Jim Ed Couch, and Neurosurgeon Dr. Jonathan Couch. The doctors were introduced by Rotarian Jessica Toren

-Topic: The doctors spoke of their career journeys from Eastern Kentucky to their current positions in Paducah.

-Takeaways for Rotarians:

-Both doctors relocated to Paducah to practice at Mercy Neurology at Lourdes

Hospital in Paducah.

-The Couch brothers are natives of Hyden, Kentucky, and both currently reside in Paducah.

-In addition to their practice, the doctors founded a scholarship program "Anonymous Hope" which offers educational scholarships to deserving high school students. From their website: "Anonymous Hope is a newer nonprofit organization dedicated to helping the people of Kentucky get the education and financial support they need. Our organization is dedicated to making the dream of higher education a reality with a mission to combat poverty and remove barriers to education. Our organization was chartered by a group of people from Eastern Kentucky who have made it their mission to help other students achieve their highest potential."
