Engage Rotary and Change Lives

October 9th, 2013

Rotary District 6710 Governor Ed Kalmey praised the Club for its many successful efforts, but exhorted members to do more. In particular, he is encouraging all clubs in the district to take advantage of social media to spread the word about Rotary's good works, encourage participation in RYLA (Rotary Youth Leadership Award) and continue the growth of Interact Clubs in the high schools and the Rotoract Club.

Kalmey urged Rotarians to "find your Rotary passion," which he did in 1999 after becoming involved in the Group Study Exchange program.

That passion has led him to many countries, including Guatemala, Turkey, Africa, China, Romania and Thailand. "There is so much we take for granted that is not available to so many. Engaging with Rotary changes lives," he said.

Kalmey asked Rotarians "to do just a little bit more." He said, "Ordinary people can do extraordinary things through Rotary, he said.

Announcements

October 9th, 2013

October is Vocational Service Month. Vocational Service has its roots in the second object of Rotary, which encourages all Rotarians to high ethical standards in our business affairs and professions, to recognize all useful occupations as worthy of respect, and to dignify work as an opportunity to serve society.

President Chris reminds Rotarians to wear something purple on October 18th for Rotary International's, "End Polio Now" Day.

Jamie Futrell says we missed the mandatory 60% attendance rate by one percentage point in September. Only 59 Rotarians had a record of 100% attendance. Mike Resnick was the winner of the prize drawing for a $40 gift certificate to The Pasta House compliments of WKYQ.

President Chris thanked everyone for their donations to the Shoes for Souls effort. The Club surpassed the goal of 300 pairs of shoes and netted 369 pairs.

Jennifer Humphries invited everyone to honor fellow Rotarian Cathy Crecelius by attending a luncheon where she will receive the "Tough Cookie Award" for her support of the Girl Scouts and the community in general. The free luncheon will be held to November 2nd at 11:30 at Artisan Kitchen, although contributions are welcome. Please RSVP by October 29th to gailruga@yahoo.com or 270-554-0161.

Debbie Wattier reminded everyone about the Distiller's Dinner to benefit the Carson Center to be held on Saturday, October 26th. Call Debbie or visit the Carson Center website for more information or to make reservations.
