Rotary License Plate Project for Tennessee

District 6780 has taken the lead in obtaining a Rotary International logo license plate in the State of Tennessee. Here is your opportunity as a Tennessee Rotarian to proudly display the Rotary logo on your license plate.

The State requires a minimum of 1,000 participants to initiate the program. The Department of Motor Vehicles charges $35 for these specialty tags. The best part of this program is that half of these funds come back to The Rotary Foundation. Rotarians in all 4 Tennessee Districts are encouraged to participate.

Funds will be collected by District 6780 for the initial 1,000 applicants. The yearly renewal process will remain as for any specialty plate registration. After the first 1,000 plates are issued, you may order a personalized Rotary plate but not before.

Once we have received the initial 1,000 applications, the District will submit all paperwork to the Department of Motor Vehicles. At that time the State will contact you for distribution of these tags. The mock-up of the plate still in draft form. Click HERE for the registration page in PDF format.

Questions? Call Greg Maciolek at 865-675-5901 x230 or email: greg.maciolek@imrtn.com

Deadline is February 15, 2016. One application per vehicle. Check can be for more than one vehicle.

Don't wait until next year to sign up. We need to make this happen quickly.

Greg Maciolek
District 6780 Secretary
