The Men's Ensemble of First Baptist Church

By: John Hutcheson

Rotary was entertained again by the Men's Ensemble of First Baptist Church, one of the favorite programs of the year reflected by the large number of visitors present. As Rev. Bill Ireland stated when he introduced the group, "They have blessed the church and the community for twenty seven years." Retirement and illnesses are blamed for the ending of this group. Many of those 27 years, they performed for Rotary in December. The group consists of director Larry Flanagan, Allen Wells, John McDonald, Paul Anderson, Ron Nix, Anthony Bridges, Bryan McAllister and Randy Poplin.

Their program included Christmas music beginning with "We Need a Little Christmas" and going through pieces as diverse as "Jingle Bells," the Caribbean carol, "Virgin Mary Had a Baby Boy" spirituals, and finally "Go Tell It on The Mountain."

It is sad to think they won't be together again. Someone in the group said we all will be looking for the reunion tour!
