Ronnie McClurg Invitational Track Meet - March 14th

Please sign up as we need all Rotarians to participate in this event. Many members have already signed up to volunteer; however, opportunities still exist to join in and spend part of the day to fellowship with these athletes and fellow Rotarians. Check your table at the next meeting for sign-up sheets!

Rotary Spring Banquet & Reception - March 26th

Greetings, fellow Rotarians:

Make your reservations now for the Rotary Spring Banquet and Reception planned for March 26, 2015 at 6:30 p.m. at the Northwest GA Trade and Convention Center!

Please let me know if you and your spouse or significant other will be joining us for the March 26th dinner.

We had a great time at last year's event, and fellowship is an important ingredient in the Rotary experience. This year's program will highlight Rotary's international impact, and how the fabric of our own community is enhanced by many international members and students. Let's get together and celebrate the great success of our club, and the impact we have around the world!

The cost is $18 for members and $30 for guests. The banquet cost for members will be added to your next quarter invoice. For guest reservations, you may pay by check or we will be glad to add that to your invoice as well.

YOUR RESPONSE IS REQUESTED

Over the next week or so, I hope to finalize our list of attendees and with this in mind, please RSVP by return e-mail to jparker@cityofdaltonga.gov or by telephone at 706-260-8718.

As always, if you have any questions please reach out to me, or President David Aft, and we look forward to seeing you on March 26 at the Trade Center!

Patrick Frawley, CEO of Community and Southern Bank

By: Kathryn Sellers

David Gregg, Market President of the Community and Southern Bank in Dalton, introduced Patrick Frawley, CEO. This bank group, which now has deposits of $3.6 billion dollars, purchased Dalton's Alliance Bank. Gregg and Frawley introduced Dawn Sanders, formerly a Dalton Rotarian, who is their Senior Credit Officer.

Frawley is known as a turn-around specialist in the banking industry. He has been in banking for over 42 years, particularly on the regulatory side prior to the last few years. He worked with the old C & S bank and then with banks in Alabama and Integrity Bank in Atlanta. With 90 bank failures in Georgia since 2008, he was aware that when banks are closed and then assets purchased, the banks in smaller towns lose all their identity and the local people because the merged banks are consolidated into the national headquarters of the buyer. He created Community and Southern Bank, keeping the management from Integrity, with the goal of growing this bank by buying failed banks in Georgia. He raised $370 million and now, with 13 acquisitions, has the fifth largest bank in Georgia with 610 employees, 42 branches in 23 counties. He says that when an entity buys a failed bank, they get all of the good with the bad.

As for Georgia banking, he thinks the worst is over as there are fewer banks in trouble: only about 40 with liquidity problems. He noted that the failures followed the pattern of the failing mortgage industry between '08 and '10 with "loosey goosey" deals, the over-development of homes and resort properties compounded by the many under-qualified home buyers' mortgages. The industry has gotten progressively better.

Frawley wants to expand his bank in Georgia, predominantly on the I 75 corridor and into contiguous states.
