The Charlie Bowen 5th Grade Service Above Self Awards

By: John Hutcheson

For the sixth year the Club held its annual Charlie Bowen 5th Grade Service Above Self Awards program for students who've been outstanding examples of Rotary's motto during their elementary school years. Perfectly organized by Rotarians Amanda Reed, Paul Alderman, and Scott Rhoden, the event introduced Club members to a group of boys and girls whose accomplishments and commitment to the well-being of others are truly extraordinary for persons so young.

After a welcome from President Jason, Amanda explained the purpose and criteria for the awards, followed by remarks from former Dalton Public Schools administrator Bill Weaver about the educational ideals of Charlie Bowen as exemplified in this program. Dr. Judy Gilreath, Whitfield County Schools Superintendent congratulated the students from her system, who included the following:

Morgan Knotts, age 11, from Antioch Elementary; Adrianna Hernandez, age 10, from Beaverdale Elementary; Gracey Ensley, age 11, from Cedar Ridge Elementary; Celeste Hernandez, age 10, from Cohutta Elementary; Jenna Gentry, age 11, from Dawnville Elementary; Isabella Hernandez, age 11, from Dug Gap Elementary; Jazmine Ayabar, age 11, from Eastside Elementary; Logan Jones, age 11, from New Hope Elementary; Joshua Pelico, age 10, from Pleasant Grove Elementary; Ansley Gates, age 11, from Tunnel Hill Elementary, Jade Bearden, age 11, from Valley Point Elementary; Joanna Nunez, age 11, from Varnell Elementary; and Benson Milam, age 11, from Westside Elementary.

Dr. Jim Hawkins, Superintendent of Dalton Public Schools, recognized the following students from that system:

Myrka Comacho, age 10, from Blue Ridge Elementary; Charlie Edwards, age 11, from Brookwood Elementary; Maria Perez, age 11, from City Park Elementary; Alex Lopez, age 10, from Park Creek Elementary; Gustavo Solis, age 12, from Roan Elementary; and Maryn Payne, age 11, from Westwood Elementary.

The program closed with Amanda's reading of the winning entry in the Laws of Life essay competition. Written by Jade Bearden of Valley Point Elementary, it demonstrated a most unusually mature application of moral and social principles to service in everyday life.
