2015 Rotary Vocational Service 1st Responder Awards

By: John Hutcheson

Rotarian Kevin Brunson, this year's Vocational Service Chair, began the club's annual Vocational Service 1st Responder Awards presentation with a reminder that Rotary's recognition of vocational service has a three-fold focus. First is adherence to, and promotion of, the highest ethical standards in all occupations; second is recognition of the value of all useful occupations, not just those pursued by Rotarians; and third is contribution of one's vocational talents to meeting the needs of the community. Each year our club recognizes public safety employees who go above and beyond the call of duty in performing their official tasks and who are exemplary representatives of their respective departments. Kevin then called upon the official leaders of each local first-responding agency to present their nominees for this year's awards and to summarize their qualifications.

From the Dalton Police Department, Chief Jason Parker presented Officer Mathias Castillo.

From the Whitfield County Fire Department, Chief Ed O'Brien presented Lieutenant Allen Kendrick.

From the Dalton Fire Department, Chief Bruce Satterfield presented Battalion Chief Mike Russell.

From the Whitfield County Sheriff's Department, Sheriff Scott Chitwood presented Sergeant Kerry Page.

From Hamilton Emergency Medical Services, Director Scott Radeker presented EMT-1 Todd Bush.

Each supervisor gave an impressive account of how his nominee routinely displayed an extraordinary professional dedication and strength of character universally admired and acclaimed by fellow workers. They fully justify their respective awards on behalf of the wider community in Rotary's spirit of "service above self," and at the end of the program the club responded with a standing ovation.
