Derby -- Five Days to Go!!!

It's Here.

This is Derby Week. The forecast is phenomenal, the location is set, and we're going to have the best fundraising party of the year.

Please be in attendance tomorrow so you can be up to date and prepared for Saturday. We also still need a little help in a few areas so you can step up and take on some easy tasks as well.

Finally, please be there with your wine and any more auction items to turn in. It's going to be a blast and you want to be a part of this!
