On January 30th, the Palm Beach Day Academy selected its monthly recipient of our ‘Service Above Self’ Award.

3. Collecting school supplies for underserved children.
4. Placing Holiday wreaths at a local Veterans cemetery.

6. Participating in a Thanksgiving food drive.
7. Collecting personal care items for active duty military.
8. Collecting food for the Holidays for the underserved.
9. Participating in Toys4Tots.
10. Working a garage sale to benefit a scholarship fund.
11. Donating toys and games to a local shelter.

Quest is a monthly e-magazine published by District 6930, which, as we all know, encompasses all of the Rotary clubs from Boca Raton in the South to Titusville in the North.

Check out Page 20 of the February 2015 issue of Quest as our club was recognized for its recent trip to Hope Rural School in Indiantown, Florida, for our annual dictionary/thesaurus/pre-school reading project.

You should be receiving monthly e-mails from the District with your copy of Quest each month. If, for whatever reason, you are not, go to: <http://www.rotary6930.org/> and click on “Quest magazine” on the left column.

That was just October through January! In February, Hailey will be starting an eyeglasses collection and, in March, she will be collecting pet supplies . When does this young lady have time to do her home work?!?

The ‘Service Above Self’ Award is presented to one student who has excelled in community service and leadership. Our next ‘Service Above Self’ presentation will be on Friday, March 6th in the Smith Auditorium located at 241 Seaview Avenue in Palm Beach. Weekly assembly starts at 8:00 a.m. and typically lasts less than one hour.
