I am so very honored and proud to be your Rotary President for 2010-11. It shall be a privilege to stand before you and convey the goals of Rotary International with all of its outstanding humanitarian services.

When I first learned of RI President Ray Klinginsmith’s motto “Building Communities, Bridging Continents”, I thought back to four years ago with a fellowship gathering of local Rotary clubs at the Paramount courtyard. That evening led to our Zoo Party with 14 clubs in attendance and 211 attendees. Next came the Phillips Point President’s Day event where we honored 11 past, present and incoming club presidents. One year later, our Casino Night fundraiser once again paid tribute to our local club presidents for their hard work and dedication.

I plan to continue this tradition with a return to our rousing and enthusiastic Bingo Night. This is to be chaired by President-Elect Stanton Collemer and Past-President Tom Tribby.

I shall continue our Club’s focus on Literacy and, working with Club Service Chair Lee Gordon, we will present various local service projects that all members may actively participate in.

Is it possible to equal or surpass this past year’s membership growth of 8 new members?! (indeed a record for our Club). We already have several promising prospects and will continue to work tirelessly in the area of membership growth.

I ask myself if I can be trained to be an inspirational leader-one who can clearly communicate my goals and objectives for the good of the Club. The methods became clearer after completing three levels at RLI (Rotary Leadership Institute). I encourage each of our members to attend at least the first level of RLI, for a better understanding of Rotary and all of its levels of service and humanitarianism.

The 101st Annual Convention of Rotary International, held in Montreal, Quebec Canada was spectacular! Next year’s gathering is in New Orleans, LA (May 22-25, 2011). Veteran convention attendees, Dr. Graham Whitfield and Bruce Taylor, shall be coordinating our Club’s participation.

Tuesday, July 6th – a date long circled on my calendar – promises to be a CELEBRATION, with the induction of our new Board of Directors; the incoming leadership of Dennis Stefanacci as both our Foundation and Speaker Chair; and the recognition of outgoing President Peter Elwell, whose expertise, polished demeanor, and outstanding leadership have been an inspiration that I am in hopes to emulate.
