Rotary International (RI) News:

Rotary International has designated certain months of the year as times for Rotary clubs to emphasize the involvement of all Rotarians in designated activities or to highlight specific Areas of Focus. Clubs are encouraged to plan special programs on the appropriate topics during these months. June has been designated as Rotary Fellowship Month, a time to recognize the importance of international fellowship and goodwill among Rotarians with similar recreational interests. There are many fellowships available to Rotarians and these may be found at www.rotary.org/fellowships.

Service Above Self Awards Breakfast

On May 24th, we held our annual ‘Service Above Self’ Awards Breakfast. That morning, our program was turned over to Cynthia Kanai, head of Palm Beach Day Academy’s Community Service Division. Cynthia introduced all of the recipients for 2015-16 and each student spoke briefly about what community service projects they had completed, how community service has affected their lives, and the ongoing relationship our Rotary club has with PBDA. We had literally a “standing room only” turnout with many parents and relatives joining us. This year’s recipients were:

Griffin Johnson	8 th grade	October
Avery Emmer	6 th grade	November
Peps Fanjul	8 th grade	December
Shane Knopp	9 th grade	January
Sidney Kosoy	7 th grade	February
Lolagrace Torres	6 th grade	March
Isabella Pargiolas	7 th grade	April
Martina Gil	7 th grade	May

Oxbridge Academy Interact Club Update

On April 15th, members of our Interact Club participated in the 9th Annual Lord's Place SleepOut to help break the cycle of homelessness. The students spent the night with hundreds of others outside in tents as they were "homeless for a night" attempting to understand how hard it is for those who spend every night outside without choice. The sleepout raised over $250,000 for the homeless in Palm Beach County.
