From the President

Each of you is making this year a fantastic one! Showing up on Tuesday mornings with a terrific smile, interest in our speakers, fun filled "Happy Dollars", and a little bit of teasing each other makes our Club a success.

Everyone that visits as a guest or speaker has said that they feel more welcomed than they ever imagined and that they are among friends. I know, too, that our Club's spirit extends into our community as well with our projects at the Lord's Place, the Back To School Bash and more. This camaraderie is what every Club hopes to achieve and WE ARE THERE!

As we move from a sleepy summer to super crazy season, let's continue to make a difference on Tuesday mornings and beyond as we build goodwill and better friendships.

Robi

ROTARY FELLOWSHIPS

Rotary offers recognized “Fellowships” to its membership.

Think of a Rotary Fellowship as an opportunity for a Rotarian and his or her spouse/significant other to join together to share a common interest, to make new friends, and to enhance one’s experience in Rotary.

Each Fellowship is operated independently from Rotary International (RI) with its own rules, dues requirements, and administrative structure. Fellowships must have active members in at least three countries.

Benefits of joining a Fellowship include the opportunity to make lasting friendships outside of one’s club, and to contribute to the advancement of world understanding and peace.

Check out www.rotary.org/Fellowships. There are over 60 approved Fellowships. Some of the current Fellowships include:

- Doctors
- Lawyers
- Golf
- Fine Arts and Antiques
- Jazz
- Motorcycling
- Scuba Diving
- Skiing
- Singles
- Wellness and Fitness
- Wine
