

ROTARY INTERNATIONAL DISTRICT 5100 Youth Protection Policy Frequently Asked Questions

- 1) Why do I need a background check?
Rotary International requires all volunteers that wish to participate in youth service programs (i.e Youth Exchange) have background checks effective June 1, 2006
- 2) Who needs to have a background check?
Any adult involved with District Youth Service programs who has regular interaction with students, either supervised or unsupervised.
- 3) What forms do I complete?
Youth Service Program Youth Volunteer Affidavit Form.
- 4) Is District 5100 paying the cost of the background checks?
No. Either the participating club or the Rotarian/volunteer shall pay the processing fee. The processing fee is required at the time that the Youth Services Affidavit is submitted. Reimbursement should be requested from the club when the club accepts responsibility for the background check fee.
- 5) Who processes my background check?
District 5100 contracts with the company Advance Reporting to process the background checks.
- 6) Where will the results of background checks be stored?
Advance Reporting will store the results of background checks.
- 7) Who has access to the results of my background check?
The District's Youth Protection Officer, District Governor, and Advance Reporting.
- 8) How often do I need a background check?
Every three years.
- 9) I'm hosting a youth exchange student and I have an 18 year old daughter that is attending a local college. Does she need a background check?
Yes.
- 10) Our family invites the Youth Exchange student to spend one weekend on the coast, do we need background checks?
Yes.
- 11) How do I get started?
Apply online through the district database (DaCdb member login) or complete and sign the Volunteer Affidavit Form available for download from the district website and fax it to (503)-513-9213.
- 12) Do you have additional questions?
