ESSAY

Write a clear and concise essay on one of the topics listed below:

1. American history is replete with examples of the “self-made man and woman.” Why then, is education, and particularly higher education, considered important today?
2. In an increasingly visual society, what can we expect from our world if reading becomes obsolete?
3. Sports can be viewed as opportunities of learning for the future, both positively and negatively. Explain.
4. Music, art and theater are all expressions of society’s creativity. How can we best cultivate this expression, enriching our present and our future?
5. Health care in the United States has changed mightily in the last two decades. How do you view that change and what do you foresee in our medical future?
