Editor's Note:

It seems like just yesterday when we began our 2016-2017 journey of QuickNotes. The year proved to be memorable and inspirational. Your posts and stories of the amazing projects you work on in your local communities showcased the essence of Rotary. I want to thank you for your many phone calls and emails that made me laugh out loud and from the belly. While we could not include those posts in QuickNotes, they certainly made the work FUN. You are truly the best district in the world and it has been my joy and honor to serve as your Editor of QuickNotes this past year. I look forward to seeing you all soon!
