What Will Inspire You?

At Rotary's International Assembly last weekend, RI President-Elect Barry Rassin of the Bahamas introduced his presidential theme for 2018-19, "Be The Inspiration."

"I want you to inspire in your clubs, your Rotarians, that desire for something greater," Rassin told the audience of zone directors and incoming district governors. "The drive to do more, to be more, to create something that will live beyond each of us."

The theme should give all of us cause to think about why we part of this great organization. Why did you join Rotary? What keeps you here?

I was an admirer of Rotary for many years before I joined our club. Thanks to my father-in-law's longtime involvement with Rotary, I was aware of the push to eradicate polio. If you look around at our community, it does not take long to see where Rotary has had an impact. When Judy Sherman and Jeannine Murrell provided the opportunity to join, I jumped at it.

Service inspires me to stay involved. I have seen first hand how what we do affects the lives of people in our community. I am inspired when I see graduating high school seniors accepting Rotary scholarships, telling us how that money will help propel their college dreams. I am inspired by our Youth Exchange Students whose lives are changed by the opportunity to travel abroad and by those who get the opportunity to experience life in our United States.

I am inspired by walking by families during Hope For The Holidays, knowing that what we do is making the holidays brighter for a mother who didn't know how they were going to buy a Christmas gift for their child or a special meal for the holiday.

I am inspired by the shrinking number of new polio cases. In 2017, there were 27 confirmed new cases of polio worldwide. So far, in 2018, there is zero. I am inspired by the fact that, through the work of Rotary, we will eradicate this disease in my lifetime.

I am inspired whenever I drive into a different community and see a project where Rotarians have made a difference. There are many.

As we look ahead to 2018-19, which will be the year I will have the privilege to be club president, I challenge each of you to look at your journey in Rotary.

- What will inspire you to get more involved?
- What will inspire you to give more to the Rotary Foundation?
- Who can you inspire to join us in our quest to serve the community and the world?

I hope you will give serious thought to these questions and please share your thoughts with me. Think about how and where you want to serve in 2018-19. I hope that, together, we can inspire each other and inspire others to join us as we serve our community and the greater world.
