America and Europe: Their Mutual Dependencies

Brought back by popular demand, prominent German businessman, Eberhard Luetjohn, will join us to speak on a most timely topic. This will be a great meeting to which to invite a guest.

PRESIDENT STEVE’S MESSAGE:

My Fellow Rotarians,

I hope everyone enjoyed their nice long weekend and were able to spend time with your families. I also hope you enjoyed doing something a little different at our last meeting; taking a short field trip to the parking lot and watching Chef take a bite out of crime!

I have confirmed the need exists for a service project here in Danville that will involve some yard work and small home repairs for someone who is worthy of our assistance. Bob Chace and I will be scouting the location this week to get specific details but look forward to a service project coming your way soon!

Thank you for your commitment to service and see you all on Monday - preferably with a future Rotarian in tow!
